Democratic County Convention.

In accordance with a call published in the Boyne Citizen, about forty supposed-to-be democrats met in a mass meeting at Boyne City, Tuesday, and placed in nomination the following Democratic Ticket:

Representative—R. W. Padock, Charlevoix.
Sheriff—R. W. Beach, Boyne City.
Judge of Probate—Wm. Mears, Boyne Falls.
Register—Jas. Isaman, South Arm.
Pros. Attorney—H. A. Jersey, Boyne City.
Treasurer—W. J. Lewis, Boyne City.
Clerk—John Bugby, Charlevoix.

Of this list, Isaman, Jersey and Lewis, are democrats. The politics of the balance of ticket is questionable. Padock, Mears and Bugby were candidates for nomination at the republican convention.

This ticket is nothing if not a sop to disgruntled, would-be politicians. No true democrat can honestly or consistently support such a ticket, and certainly a republican that does is only advertising his soreness over a fancied wrong. The agitation against the so-called "ring" seems rather ridiculous in the light of his convention. Will somebody rise and name the authorized delegates from South Arm township? What a golden opportunity to put the pet "primary reform" idea into execution. This they did not dare do because then it is a certainty that some of those foremost in the movement would never have had an opportunity to pose as willing martyrs to the people's cause. No man can but honor a democrat who is one from principle but he is certainly with questionable company when he goes with or supports the heterogeneous ticket of Tuesday last. So far as these men are concerned personally nothing can be said as they are good representative men but the voter should look well to the kind of politics they represent.

"Ole Olson" the first of the Swedish dialect comedy dramas to gain success and popularity and first ever presented to on East Jordan Audience will be played at the Loveday Opera House next Thursday night with Ben Hendricks as "Ole." Gus Heege, who wrote this play was the first to extract comedy and heart interest from the Swedish types of character, and "Ole Olson" is recalled as an interesting and pleasing comedy drama, in which this type of character is presented with dignity and naturalness and at the same time with a full appreciation of comedy effects. The plot, which centers around the tribulations of a young widow and the efforts of a faithful young Swedish man whom she has befriended to lighten her burden, is told with the natural simplicity that is heart appealing.

Mrs. Jordan, the widow, has almost overcome the schemes of an unscrupulous brother-in-law, when her first husband and Jefferson Bissett, whom she has long believed to be dead, makes his appearance and co-operates with the scoundrel to secure a fortune left her by her second husband. In their pursuit of this plot they run counter to the young Swede, who instinctively dislikes the two rascals and becomes Mrs. Jordan's self appointed guardian.

The development of the Swedish immigrant from the un-outh and awkward Swedish American citizen of the last act is carried along on lines of mingled comedy and pathos that have "the simple annals of the poor" ever in mind. The company engaged is an excellent one in every particular and is the only one authorized to present this play.

You cannot cure piles by external application. Any remedy to be effective, must be applied inside, right at the seat of the trouble. Manzan is put up in a collapsible tube, with a nozzle, so that it reaches inside and applies the remedy where it is most needed. Manzan strengthens the blood vessels and nerves so that piles are impossible. Manzan relieves the pain almost instantly, heals, soothes, cools and cures. Sold by Warne's Pharmacy.

AFTER THE SPOILS

Democrats Are Not Sincere In Their Pledges.

BOS3 CAMPAU FOR SENATOR

Is Ambition of Party Managers—Republicans Will Not be Led Into the Trap.

Hon. Fred M. Warner, who heads the Republican state ticket, is selected as the especial target of the enemies of the party in this campaign, and they are seeking by every means to create the impression that he is unworthy of the high trust for which he has been named. Two years ago Mr. Warner was on the ticket as nominee for secretary of state, and there was perhaps no other name on that ticket so generally conceded to be unassailable in its popularity. It was everywhere said that he was the ideal candidate, for whom the full party vote should be polled, and the result proved that true. Now what, we might ask, has occurred since to justify a different estimate? Mr. Warner was elected by one of the highest majorities recorded, and the record of his administration for two years is open to any who would assail it. Has it been assailed? No. Has any corruption, any dereliction, any incapacity, any fault whatever been found in his conduct of the secretary's office? None—none whatever. He has gone about his duties modestly, faithfully, intelligently, efficiently, and has given the state an administration of merit never surpassed in that office. It is not pretended to convict him of any fault as a servant of the state, and his detractors cannot deny that he has given his time and his talents to the public service, and has nowhere betrayed the public interest nor in any manner compromised the good name of the state or of the party that chose him. But, they say, he would do so as governor, and they bring forward the nonsensical and meaningless allegation that he is a creature of "the machine," and would be a puppet in the hands of unscrupulous bosses—just as the very same papers that are saying this used to caricature McKinley as a contemptible puppet in the hands of a horrible ogre labeled Mark Hanna. They asserted that Mr. Warner is in some way mortgaged and will be controlled by some such evil influences, as they continually declared that McKinley was. They show no evidence, of course, of any pledge or obligation from him, and Mr. Warner for himself has earnestly declared his absolute freedom from any obligation or implication whatever affecting his official action, other than those in the platform upon which he was nominated. The voters will judge whether the man who has a record so clean and honorable in the public positions he has filled, is likely to show himself a different kind of a man when the more serious responsibility of the chief executive is laid upon him.

Republicans in Michigan who, for whatever reason, are disposed to look with favor upon the Democratic blandishments to vote against Fred M. Warner, or any legislative candidates, should remember that there is much more at stake in this campaign than the adoption of any particular system of nominating candidates for office. In this connection the Saginaw Courier-Herald very wisely says:

The Democratic managers' plan is to induce disaffected Republicans to vote against the Republican legislative candidates as well as for the Democratic candidate for governor. They are wise in this, according to their plans, because they know that a Democratic governor would be as helpless as a woggle bug if he were elected governor with a Republican legislature. Indeed, such a partisan division of the legislative and executive departments would defeat the purpose which they are inciting Republicans to imagine is the real object of their plans. Primary reform, in fact, would have a better show were Mr. Warner elected in such case, because he has declared his purpose of signing any bill passed by the legislature, whether for local option or for state-wide adoption.

The "Independent" or any other sort of voter will search in vain the Democratic speeches, newspapers, and other sources of outlying, to find any reference to the fact that the next legislature will reapportion and redistrict the state, both as to congressional and legislative divisions, and will elect a United States senator to succeed Senator Burrows, Republican. And right here is the meat in the cocoon.

Now it is assumed that nearly every one of the Republicans disgruntled on state issues intends to vote for the Republican candidate for president. The Democrats foster this assumption, in order not to alarm the dissatisfied voter and make him suspicious of the real purpose of the Democratic managers. That purpose is not to secure primary reform, for which they care little or nothing, but to secure control of the legislature, redistrict the state and elect a United States senator.

They can secure this control only by the votes of the Republicans, who are importuned to vote against Fred M. Warner and for the Democratic legislative candidates. These Republicans, sound on the national ticket, anxious for the continuance of a Republican congress, who could not be induced, under any circumstances, to vote to cripple the national administration, are in reality asked—under the guise of an alleged non-partisan state movement—to place the executive office and the legislature in the hands of the Democrats so that they may have an opportunity to gerrymander the state against the Republicans, to send a Democrat from Michigan to sit six years in the United States senate, and to juggle the districts so that they may have a chance to increase that party's representation in the lower house from Michigan from one member to half a dozen or more.

Such an outcome might easily result in turning over congress to the Democrats in the middle of President Roosevelt's administration, and prove a serious set-back to the country's present satisfactory condition.

Do the Republicans of Michigan desire to become party to such a political condition?

Roosevelt Republicans, the kind that are true blue and rock-rooted in national affairs, as all these men are whom the Democratic managers are endeavoring to persuade to help them gain control of Michigan by this "non-partisan" trick, may well think twice before they fall in with their wishes by voting against the Republican candidate for governor and the legislative candidates.

They certainly do not want the state gerrymandered for ten years to come by the D. J. Campau crowd. They certainly do not want to see D. J. Campau occupying a seat in the United States senate. They certainly do not want to see the most of our present strong delegation in congress swept out two years hence. If they do not, they should support Fred M. Warner, clean, honest, capable, without a flaw in his private and public character, and the legislative nominees. They should emulate Hon. Geo. B. Horton, master of the State grange, who declares that the division of sentiment in the party upon the question of the best method of reforming the nominating system is not so wide that it cannot be bridged by a Republican legislature and a Republican governor.

At any rate, they have opportunity to ponder the seriousness, in a party sense, of giving the state into political charge of the present Democratic organization.

8 Cents

Eight cents a pound is what a young woman paid for twelve pounds of flesh.

She was thin and weak and paid one dollar for a bottle of Scott's Emulsion, and by taking regular doses had gained twelve pounds in weight before the bottle was finished.

Eight cents a pound is cheap for such valuable material. Some pay more, some less, some get nothing for their money. You get your money's worth when you buy Scott's Emulsion.

School Notes.

Tuesday morning we began the penmanship course.

The new seats have arrived. They were put in place for Tuesday and now we all have a seat of our own.

Next Wednesday evening the East Jordan High School Literary Society will give an open Lyceum, the proceeds to go toward paying for the encyclopedia. This has been on our hands for some time, and the High School is desirous of paying it up. We will give you a first class literary and musical entertainment for only fifteen cents, and we deserve your patronage and support in this.

The High School Football Team will play the Charlevoix High School Team today. The teams are in fine shape and it is sure to be a good game.

HAVEN'T HEARD OF THESE.

In their zealous efforts to seek out persons who have recently changed their political convictions for personal reasons and avowed their purpose to support candidates of the opposition, why do not the Detroit newspapers call attention to the very important additions which have been recently made to the supporters of the Republican state ticket? Will E. Hampton, brother of Charles Hampton, of the Democratic state central committee, Henry G. Warty of the Muskegon News, and the several other long-time Democratic editors of Michigan who are now supporting Fred Warner and the entire Republican state ticket, are more significant than the persons whom the Detroit papers are exploiting, many of whom have been voting the Democratic ticket during the past eight years.

"Age cannot wither nor custom stale," the attractions possessed by that best of Swedish dialect plays, "Ole Olson." Year in and year out, for more than a decade "Ole" has been presented to the theatre going public and its popularity has never waned. Other Swedish characters have come upon the scene, but none of them can vie with "Ole" in the regard of the public and it stands unique in its line like "Rip Van Winkle" and Uncle Joshua Whitcomb. "Ole" will be presented at the Loveday Opera House next Thursday night by an excellent company of comedians headed by Ben Hendricks and a thoroughly clever and artistic performance is assured. The company is the same that has presented the play this season in New York, Brooklyn, Boston, St. Louis and other cities. Prices 25 to 75 cents. Seats on sale Monday.
